$1.00 Per Year, In Advance

SUPPOSE that tomorrow you see a chance where by investing $500 or $1,000 in a business venture you can double your money. Are you ready for that opportunity? If you are not, the man with the ready check book is. He always carries a goodly balance in bank waiting for the opportunities which daily present themselves in the business world.

This is an age of quick action. Real estate and business deals are consummated within the hour. Your credit in the community may be excellent. You may be able, if given a little time, to borrow enough money to put through a deal. But the man with the ready cash, the man with the check book, will get the preference.

Why You Should Take IRON

Any person whose blood is thin—who is pale or weak—who always feels tired or to whom life hardly seems worth while should take

SAN-TOX Celery and Iron Tonic

The beneficial effects of San Tox Celery & Iron Tonic are soon noticeable. It makes rich, red blood. The pallor of the cheek is soon replaced by the rosy glow of health. No tonic is more popular with those who need one, and nothing is a better investment than a $1.00 bottle of San Tox Celery & Iron Tonic.

BACCALAUREATE

The importance of the Baccalaureate night to the minds of many was emphasized last Sunday evening when the large auditorium room of the M. E. church was filled to capacity.

Bouquets of flowers decorated the altar, lending to the scene the soft beauty and charm that only flowers can.

At the last stroke of the bell, the organ, played by Mrs. Staley began a march, accompanied by Prof. Sturgis and Ronald Toft with violins and Edith Toft with cornet. The graduates, twenty-four in number, were ushered to front seats in waiting for them, also the members of the school board and the faculty.

Rev. Bradfield gave the invocation and a beautiful anthem was sung by the combined Presbyterian and Methodist choirs. During the offering the orchestra gave the audience a treat with a fine selection.

The text chosen by Rev. Geach for the Baccalaureate sermon to the young people just leaving Yale high school, was most appropriate and offered food for deep thought to both young and old. It was taken from Romans 12: 2, and reads as follows:—"And be not conformed to this world; but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God."

We would like to give the sermon word for word to our readers, but that is scarcely possible. However, so many heard the splendid thoughts, the excellent version and the fine application that it is not necessary to say more than that everyone enjoyed and was benefited by the address.

After a quartette sung in good style by Prof. Sturgis, Harold Hallman, Mrs. Clyde Adams and Verna Hallman, the congregation was dispersed with the benediction.

Junior Banquet.

Another annual banquet given by the Juniors in honor of the seniors has come and gone and the worthy Juniors are congratulating themselves on the success in every particular of this one of 1916.

Tables were set in the dining room of the Presbyterian church and one hundred ten persons participated in the banquet, all admiring the beauty of the decorations of tables and room itself. Spirea with its pure white blossoms and Japanese honeysuckle with its beautiful pink coloring were used with a lavish hand and with the pretty costumes of the guests, the whole combined with charming effect.

At eight o'clock all were seated and everyone enjoyed the three course feast. It was noticeable that there was no stiffness or formality, as is quite often the case in these functions, everyone doing his or her best to be free and to make his neighbor happy and at ease.

After the banquet punch was served and the following toasts were responded to with our esteemed superintendent N. J. Drouyor in his natural capacity of toastmaster, introduced by the president of the Junior class, Donald McIntyre.

The toasts were the best ever, so say the hearers, anyway, they were extra good and the jokes caused much merriment.

Will Interest Yale Friends.

The many Yale friends of Clare L. Fuller, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Fuller, will be pleased to learn that he is making good, having purchased a half interest in the Mason Jewelry Co. at Ionia. We copy the following from the Ionia Sentinel:

"The new owner, E. W. Krainbrink and Clare L. Fuller, have for many years been closely identified with Detroit's largest wholesale and retail jewelry store, Mr. Krainbrink as secretary and Mr. Fuller as treasurer. They are both hustlers, come highly recommended, and are of the broad gauge type of men, and will prove a great addition to Ionia's business men."

They will continue the same courteous and upright treatment that has always been accorded by the outgoing proprietors and a square deal to all is assured."

Mr. J. A. Menzies,

Yale, Mich.

Dear Sir: Enclosed please find money order amounting to $1.50 to renew our subscription to your valuable paper, The Expositor. We would feel lost without it, although there are a great many new names of people who moved to your city since we lived there, but still by reading the paper we renew acquaintances of many of our old time friends.

We have had a very cold and backward spring yet seedling and planting are about finished. We do not farm so much. Dairying and ranching cattle and sheep is our great hobby.

Very truly yours,
A. A. Tomlin.

CARD OF THANKS.

I desire to thank the neighbors and friends for the many acts of kindness and sympathy shown myself and family during the illness and after the death of my wife, also the choir for services rendered at the funeral and all who furnished such beautiful floral offerings.

CELEBRATE IN YALE

July 4th Will be a Big Day Here.
Make Plans to Attend.

The committees in charge of the 4th of July program have certainly turned the trick and have as fine a list of events scheduled as were ever pulled off in Yale. Hills and programs will be out this week.

The list of athletic sports is exceptionally large, consisting of running, jumping, and many funny stunts. In the afternoon a fast base ball game will be played. The Anker-Holth, Port Huron's fastest playing team will cross bats with the Yale Boosters, and a good game is assured lovers of the National game.

Good speakers have been secured for the occasion and it is expected that City park will house on that day one of the largest crowds that ever visited Yale.

Music will be furnished during the day by McKanlass' band of Port Huron.

Meals will be served on the grounds, also refreshments of all kinds. The day's doings will close with a grand display of fireworks in the evening.

It is none too early to begin planning for the National holiday, and while you are doing so, plan to come to Yale. We will publish the complete program later.

Work of County Agriculturist

Two important meetings were attended last week. On Tuesday afternoon a talk on the relationship between the county agent and the farmer was given at the meeting of the Gleaner Federation at Thornton. This constituted the first opportunity that has presented itself for meeting with the Gleaners, and it afforded much pleasure and encouragement to be able to work with them. It perhaps would not be too much to say that the Farmers' Clubs and Granges, in addition to being excellent support for the county agent movement, have been strengthened themselves through their co-operation in the work, and it is believed that with the Gleaners also the benefits will be mutual. About one hundred fifty persons were present, and the interest shown made it one of the best meetings I have attended since coming to the county.

Thursday was spent with the Union Farmers' Club at the home of Daniel Foley in Emmett township where the subject of Livestock Record and Co-operative Marketing Associations was discussed. These seemed to be questions of vital interest to those present as it resulted in a lively discussion and the attitude shown indicates that conditions are becoming very favorable for accomplishing something in the way of marketing farm products co-operatively.

A discussion of stock feeding and methods of balancing rations Monday afternoon completed the work with the County Normal Class. Plans for carrying out some demonstrations in regard to testing seeds and soils and the operation of the Babcock test in connection with the schools were also discussed with the prospective teachers. It seems reasonable that the older boys and girls in the country schools could learn to do considerable work along these lines.

Wednesday was spent at the meeting of the National Holstein Association at Detroit. This is one of the largest Live Stock Record Associations in existence, and afforded an excellent opportunity for Michigan people to get first information in regard to these institutions which have made it possible to improve the live stock of the country and bring it to the high standard of today.

The canning demonstrations which will be held next week seem to be about the best appreciated venture that has yet been undertaken, and the indication, and the indications are very good for a large attendance. These will be held as follows:—

Mrs. John Patterson, Columbus township, Monday, June 19, at 2 P. M.
Mrs. Wm. Campbell, Lynn township, Tuesday, June 20, at 9 A. M.
Huston Hall, Allenton, Tuesday, June 21, at 9 A. M.

The Gleaner Hall, China township, Wednesday, June 21, at 9 A. M.
There are some prospects of getting some girls' canning and gardening clubs started also, and all who are interested, whether young or old, should arrange to attend.

C. L. Brody, County Agent

CALEDONIAN DAY

Some day during the week of July 24th the Scotch lads and lassies of Yale and vicinity will put on a day of real old-time Caledonian sports. They will enliven the occasion with pipers and dancers and it will be a red letter day for our little city. We hope to be able to give the exact date and more particulars next week.

GLYCERINE AND BARK PREVENT APPENDICITIS

The simple mixture of buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., known as Adler-I-ka, astonishes Yale people. Because Adler-I-ka acts on BOTH lower and upper bowel, ONE SPOONFUL relieves almost ANY CASE of constipation, sour stomach or gas. It removes such surprising foul matter that a few doses often relieve or prevent appendicitis. A short treatment helps chronic stomach trouble. The INSTANT, easy action of Adler-I-ka is astonishing.
